SHAPING OUR WORSHIP

Shaped by Art

Graham Maule is a Resource Worker for the Wild Goose Resource Group. He is an artist, designer and occasional hymnwriter, who is drawn to imagining and researching space – or rather, place, sign, symbol, song, performance and the event of ritual in lay training and involvement.

Shaped by Music

Andrew Carwood is the Director of Music at St Paul's Cathedral, the first non-organist to hold such a post since the 12th century. A singer by training he is also the Artistic Director of the early music ensemble "The Cardinal's Musick", which he founded in 1989. He is known for the scholarly and entertaining way in which he introduces and narrates concerts, breaking down barriers between audience and performer, allowing the music to speak in an even more eloquent way.

Shaped by the Sound and the Story

Geraldine Latty's musical worship journey has taken her from Australia to the Albert Hall, from street parties to cathedrals. Her music fuses, Soul, Gospel, Blues, World, Jazz, Classical and Rock. She works as a songwriter, performer, vocal coach and choir director, and she lectures on the Music and Theology degree program at London School of Theology. She has a wealth of experience leading choirs which she uses to help train and teach others in her 'Sing Gospel Workshops'.

Carey Luce is the Head of Music at Alpha Prep School in Harrow. He has worked in a wide range of musical contexts and plays piano, keyboard, bass, drums and guitars. After graduating from Goldsmiths' College he was a church music director, alongside working as a freelance professional musician and educator.
